

The Times

XIIITH YEAR.—8 PAGES.

A MUSEMENTS— WITH Dates of Events.

NEW L. O. ANGELES THEATER— Under the direction of AL HAYMAN. H. C. WYATT, Manager. Thursday, Friday and Saturday,

3-Nights=3

The Popular Irish Comedian, MR. DAN'L SULLY, In the Greatest Success of His Career,

"O'NEIL, WASHINGTON, D. C."

Depicting the social, political and military ideas of life at the National Capital

STYLING ELECTRICAL EFFECTS.

SEE THE MAN-O'-WAR MODEL.

REGULAR PRICES—$1, 75c, 50c and 25c. Seats on sale Monday at 9 a.m.

IMPERIAL,

REFINED VAUDEVILLE. MAIN ST. BETWEEN FIRST AND SECOND.

Matinee's Saturday and Sunday

A MONSTER PROGRAMME.

THIS EVENING AT 8.

Greatest All Feature Show. SADI ALFARABI and a Company of Refined Artists. All New Acts and Novelties.

Pre-eminently the most successful place of amusement in this city. THE HOME OF MODERN MIRACLES.

Introducing Only Vaudeville Stars. PRICES—EVENING—10c, 20c, 25c and 50c. MATINEE—Adults, 25c. Children, 10c COMING—November 5th, Entire New Company.

BENSON'S G BAND OPERAHOUSE— A. W. BENSON, Proprietor and Manager. WEEK COMMENCING MONDAY, OCT. 29.

LAST WEEK OF COMIC OPERA. ★ "The Bridal Trap."

Comic Opera in three acts by Ed Audran, composer of "The Mascot" and "Olivette".

NEXT WEEK—Inaugural of the dramatic season.

66 A RIEL, The $10,000 illusion from Paris. A beautiful living lady floating in space. WHAT IS IT?

330 South Spring Street. Open daily from 10 to 12 a.m.; 3 to 5 and 7 to 10 p.m. ADMISSION, 10c. No extra charge for reserved seats.

The Shoninger Piano used is from WILLIAMSON BROS., 27 & Spring.

PAVILION—THE GRAND OPENING OF THE LOS ANGELES

INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION Will take place at the Pavilion, corner Fifth and Olive streets, on NOVEMBER 3, with the grandest exhibits ever seen in Southern California.

Don't Miss It.

HOTELS, RESORTS AND CAMPING.

HOTEL NADEAU, European Plan. NADEAU CAFE.

200 elegantly furnished rooms, 60 suites with bath, supplied with all modern improvements. Rooms $1 per day and upwards. NADEAU CAFE, C. E. AMIDON, Manager, is the finest in the city; private dining and banquet rooms. Liberally managed. H. W. CHASE & CO.

WESTMINSTER HOTEL.

AMERICAN AND EUROPEAN PLANS.

975 Rooms; 75 Suites with Private Bathrooms.

POTTER & JOHNSON, Proprietors.

ARROWHEAD HOT SPRINGS—THE FAMOUS MOUNTAIN HEALTH RESORT heated by hot water from springs; overlooking San Bernardino, Riverside and Redlands; bus leaves Arrowhead Station 12:35 and 4 p.m.; San Bernardino 3:15 p.m. Postoffice and telephone at Springs. City office, Coulter's Dry Goods Store.

HOLLENBECK HOTEL CAFE 214 AND 216 W. SECOND ST.—THE FINEST RESTAURANT IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA. Catering for Weddings. Oysters 50c per dozen. J. E. AULL & CO., Proprietors.

VILLA KARMA EL CAJON VALLEY, SAN DIEGO COUNTY, CAL. ALL THE COMFORTS OF HOME; charming drives and rides, with excellent shooting; moderate rates.

HOTEL RAMONA COR. SPRING AND THIRD STREETS. EUROPEAN PLAN. New management. Rates moderate. F. B. MALLORY, Prop.

HOTEL LINCOLN SECOND AND HILL—FAMILY HOTEL. APPOINTMENTS perfect; electric cars to all points. THOS. PASCOE, Prop.

GRAND VIEW MONROVIA, FAMOUS "GEM OF THE FOOTHILLS." FIRST CLASS; tourist parties a specialty. A. W. ETTER, Proprietor.

LA SOLANO GRAND AVENUE AND LOCKWOOD ST. PASADENA, FIRST CLASS; in every respect. GEORGE COOK, Manager.

THE SAN MARCOS HOTEL SANTA BARBARA. STRICTLY FIRST CLASS; the finest climate on earth all the year.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Three Carloads of

New Pianos

JUST RECEIVED BY KOHLER & CHASE, 288 SOUTH SPRING ST. Decker Bros., A. B. Chase, Ivers & Pond and others.

THE WONDERFUL SYMPATHETIC WEBER TONE

WEber Piano.

Agency, BARTLETT'S MUSIC HOUSE, 103 N. Spring St.

BUY THE WHITNEY MAKE TRUNK FACTORY, 34 NORTH MAIN Street.

MASSAGE—Vapor and Other Baths.

MME. BEAUDRY, GRADUATE OF L'ECOLE DE BON SAUVEUR, France, and of the West Side Medical College, Chicago, removed to 410½ S. SPRING ST., rooms 7 and 8; massage, electric heating, electric and vapor baths; open Sundays.

TO LADIES—VAPOUR AND HIP BATHS, massage, and electric treatment; also chlorophyll work done. MRS. C. STAPFER, 311 W. 2nd St., rooms 4, 5 and 6.

MRS. GAUDREAU—MAGNETIC HEALER AND PHYSIOTHERAPIST. Room 4, 5 and 6.

FRENCH LADY—MAGNETIC HEALER AND PHYSIOTHERAPIST. Room 4, 5 and 6.

MILLE DE ROSE AND ATTENDANT, MRS. 128 S. MAIN ST., room 1.

MRS. ANWAY, MASSAGE PARLORS, 3314 S. SPRING ST., room 5. Open Sundays.

ATTORNEYS—DR. DEWITT C. BENNETT HAS TREATED successfully special diseases over 40 years. Room 27, Downey Block.

CARTER & PIERCE, LAWYERS, OFFICES 34 to 36, Bryson Block, Los Angeles.

thrust, etc., removed to 302 S. Main St.

PHYSICIANS—DR. J. ADAMS, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, in charge of medical and surgical dispensary; chronic diseases; a special attention given to the treatment of all female diseases, both medical and surgical. Office, 325 N. Main St., 200 ft. from the Elimo Hotel.

J. HORSCHE, M.D., PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, graduate of Wuerzburg University, Berlin and Buergerkrankenshaus, Elberfeld, Germany; lungs, stomach and blood disease; paralysis, specially. Hours, 9-11 a.m., 2-4 p.m., 7-8 p.m. 325 S. Main St., opp. Westminster.

HYGIENE INSTITUTE, 1314 S. BROADWAY, Vapor and Electric shower and vapor baths. MRS. LOUIS SCHWARTZ, 130, 131 S. Main St., rooms 2 and 3.

MME. DE LEON—MEDICATED VAPOR baths, massage, electro-magnetic treatment.

YOKOHAMA, Oct. 28.—The forces at Huien were commanded by Gen. Song and Lin. The Chinese occupy a very strong position at Hong-Wang, the castle being guarded by 20,000 men. The troops are being massed at Kin-Chow, with a view to the defense of Port Arthur. The Japanese have completely blocked Ta-Lien.

ATTORNEYS—DR. DEWITT C. BENNETT HAS TREATED successfully special diseases over 40 years. Room 27, Downey Block.

CARTER & PIERCE, LAWYERS, OFFICES 34 to 36, Bryson Block, Los Angeles.

MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 29, 1894.

PER WEEK, 20¢
PER MONTH, 50¢. FIVE CENTS

THE MORNING'S NEWS

—IN—

The Times

ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS BRIEFED.

THE CAPTURE.

News of the Second Victory.

Marshal Yamagata's Men Irresistible.

Generals Lin and Song Flea After a Slight Resistance.

The Fleet to Blockade Port Arthur—The Mikado's Subjects at San Francisco Forward Funds.

A Russian Treaty.

Associated Press Leased-wire Service.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The Japanese Legation today received a dispatch which confirms the news published this morning of a second victory of the Japanese army under Marshal Yamagata. The telegram dated Hiroshima and reads as follows:

"BY TELEGRAPH: A Hungarian boarding-house at Laurel Run, Pa., blown up with dynamite; three men killed and several seriously injured; the keeper of the house arrested. The second victory of the Japanese army confirmed; Chinese Generals Lin and Song flee after offering slight resistance; the Japanese fleet to blockade Port Arthur and other points—How Chancellor von Caprivi came to resign; interesting light on the German ministerial crisis—Dire results of the earthquakes in Argentina; towns demolished or swallowed up; two thousand lives thought to be lost. The anti-Tammany forces in New York rejoicing; Col. Macmillan thought to have a strong lead for Mayor; Gov. White lets himself loose at Chicago—Clever detective work at The Dalles, Or.; the Pacific express robbers caught and all but two hundred of the fourteen thousand dollars recovered—A more hopeful prospect for the Czar; the Czarowitch's wedding fixed for today—Ziegler's records are lowered; Floyd McFarland holds the time for the five-mile road race—President Cleveland may be called on to arbitrate between Mexico and Guatemala.

Dispatches were also received from Middlefield, Cal.; San Jose, San Francisco, Baltimore, Chicago, New York, Berlin, London, Shanghai and other places.

THE CITY.

The outlook for the Republican candidates; they have worked hard and are confident of success—A silly charge against Mr. McLachlan disproved—Preparing for the coming handball tournament—A woman arrested for cruelty to her own infant—Meeting of the Board of Education this evening; Bushell's resignation looked for—The "Boy Phenomenon" greeted by a large audience—Henry T. Hazard announces himself as an independent candidate for Mayor.

THE SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

The Pasadena freeholders have almost completed their new charter—Pushing the construction of the coast line in Santa Barbara county—A creamery for Riverside practically assured—A peculiar suit instituted by a San Bernardino physician.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For Southern California: Fair weather, nearly stationary temperature, except warmer in the east portion, light to fresh variable winds.

The forecast of the Weather Bureau at Chicago furnishes the following information for fruit men and shippers of perishable products: "A cold wave will occur in Eastern Kansas and at Omaha."

A TRANSCONTINENTAL LINE.

The Burlington Begins its New Service to Montana.

Associated Press Leased-wire Service.

OMAHA, Oct. 28.—Today the Burlington began the regular running of trains to Billings, Mont., and by way of the Northern Pacific to Helena, Spokane, Butte, Seattle, Tacoma and Portland, and all other Idaho, Montana and Puget Sound points, thereby giving to the railroad another transcontinental line which will play no inconsequential part in the matter of freight and passenger traffic in the future.

There was considerable of a crowd of people at the Union Depot to see the train and the people who would make the first regular run over the new extension of the Burlington from Sheridan, Wyo., to Billings, Mont., a distance of 44 miles, the Tokio paper states that prior to a Chinese naval inspection by Li Hung Chang, the men manufactured cannon balls out of clay, painted them black and passed in front of the Chinese soldiers to excite the derision of the Japanese. The latter point out that the Chinese erected breastworks and then sat quietly within them without sending out skirmishers to harass the enemy.

The Chinese soldiers also raise a number of banners just as they fire a volley so that the Japanese troops always know when a shower of lead is coming. The Chinese also exhaust their cartridges in the magazine guns as fast as they fire them, making them a half of bullets and then a long calm. The rifles captured from the Chinese show rust of long standing and other carelessness.

A touching story is told of a Japanese bugler, who had just sounded the "charge" when he received a bullet in the breast. He was urged to lay aside his bugle, as any fresh exertion would make a hemorrhage, proving fatal. His reply was another blast of the "charge" as he toppled over.

The members of the Japanese House of Peers have sent 500,000 cigarettes to the soldiers. Snow fell in Japan on September 22, which is the earliest in ten years. A Tokio paper states that prior to a Chinese naval inspection by Li Hung Chang, the men manufactured cannon balls out of clay, painted them black and passed in front of the Chinese soldiers to excite the derision of the Japanese. The gold ignots and coins captured by the Japanese at Ping-Yang amount to 700,000 yen. Count Okuma, the War Minister, has issued a proclamation urging troops to show every kindness to Chinese wounded, adding that "they should not be more anxious to display carnage than charity." The Japanese naval experts say torpedo boats were sunk at the Ya-Ho battle. He had been shot in the Ya-Ho battle, as any fresh exertion would make a hemorrhage, proving fatal. His appetite is good. His condition is unchanged.

Dr. Grube Taps His Majesty and Relieves the Swelling—De Giers Cables the Minister at Washington.

Associated Press Leased-wire Service.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 28.—The Grashdan Nova Vremya and other papers, in expressing gratitude for the universal sympathy shown abroad, refers to the delicate act of Emperor William in personally attending the services held Friday in Berlin, while the French ambassador at the German capital thought it sufficient to send a representative. The papers add that Emperor William also sent Prof. Leyden to Lividia, hoping that he would be able to benefit the Czar.

It is stated tonight that Dr. Zachariah now takes a more hopeful view of the case. He says that the Czar will now be able to give the Czarowitch and Princess Alix his blessing on the occasion of their marriage, which is now stated, will take place tomorrow. The Czar fixed tomorrow as the wedding day, because it is the anniversary of the escape of the imperial train at Bourka, which many believe was the result of a Nihilist plot to kill His Majesty.

Dr. Grube today tapped His Majesty and relieved the swelling. M. Durnovo, Minister of the Interior, intends to resign on the death of the Czar.

ARRESTED FOR POLITICAL REASONS.

MOSCOW, Oct. 28.—It is rumored that two officers belonging to the Cossack regiment of the Imperial Guard, have been arrested on political charges.

A MESSAGE FROM GIERS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The following bulletin concerning the Czar's condition was received here today by Prince Catazusena, the Russian Minister:

"ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 28.—The Emperor slept well on Friday night. Yesterday the appetite was good and the function of the heart more satisfactory. The general condition is better. Odema has not increased.

(Signed) "GIERS."

NO CHANGE.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 28.—An official bulletin issued from Lividia at 10 o'clock this morning bearing the signature of the five physicians in attendance on the Czar says: "The Czar slept well last evening. His appetite is good. His condition is unchanged."

The regular official bulletin dated Lividia, and timed 7 o'clock this evening, says that the condition of the Czar shows no change.

KNOCKOUT DROPS.

A Windy City Man Drugged and Robbed in New York.

Associated Press Leased-wire Service.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—John M. Holmes, who claims to come from Chicago, in the Jefferson Market Police Court today declared that his flight was due to drinking with a stranger. He was found unconscious on a stoop at Madison avenue and Thirteenth street. Holmes said he had been robbed. He explained that he had been in this city about a week. Early on Saturday evening a man approached him in the Astor House and spoke familiarly, and then proposed that they take a drink.

Holmes said he ordered a cocktail, and still accompanied by the stranger, started up town to keep a business appointment. He remembered boarding a Broadway cab car, and then all recollection of the night's events ceased. He declares that he had been robbed of a $300 gold watch and valuable papers, one of which was a contract worth $40,000.

Justice Hogan concluded that "knockout" drops had been given the man, and accordingly discharged him.

TONS OF DYNAMITE.

[COAST RECORD.] ROBBERS CAUGHT.

Clever Detective Work at The Dalles.

A Steel Bar Lends a Clew to the Fourteen Thousand Dollar Robbery.

Asphyxiated in a Wine Vat—Mortal Combat Between Drunken Indians—A Maricopa Train-robbber Tries to Escape.

Associated Press Leased-wire Service.

THE DALLES (Or.) Oct. 28.—After two weeks of unsuccessful endeavor on the part of detective and local officers, the parties who robbed the Pacific Express Company in this city of $14,000 on October 13, have at last been apprehended and placed under arrest but $200 of the money recovered. Frank Klein and Otto Savage, young men of respectable parents living here, are in jail, having made a complete confession of the theft.

Many clews were followed by the detectives, but all proved fruitless until Sheriff Driver suggested that possibly Klein and Savage, who had been living in idleness about town and whose once belonged to what is known locally as the Hawthorne gang of desperadoes, might be implicated. It was known that these two young men were separated from the gang on account of a disagreement as to the plan for robbing a Union Pacific train at a point between here and Portland. Shortly after separation, Hawthorne and his pals robbed Mays & Crow's store here of a lot of guns, pistols and ammunition, and left for their rendezvous near Mt. Hood.

It is said that the only clew to the robbers was a bar of steel sharpened at one end and fastened to a rock at the top of a tree which was found beside the express-trunk-box on the floor of the express-office on the morning of the robbery.

YACUINA (Or.) Oct. 28.—The steamer Homer arrived today from San Francisco. Among her passengers was the crew of the American brig, T. W. Lucas, which was bound from Hoodsport, Puget Sound, to San Francisco, with a cargo of piles.

The captain's log shows a succession of heavy winds and tremendous seas from Oct. 18 to 24, causing the vessel to leak badly. The crew was unable to stop the pumping, and the ship was abandoned at 8 o'clock on the morning of October 24 in a water-logged condition, having only time to save a portion of their clothing when picked up by the Homer. The captain with his crew return to San Francisco, leaving here on Wednesday.

GAVE UP THE BRIG.

The Crew of a Puget Sound Vessel Obliged to Flee.

Associated Press Leased-wire Service.

THE DALLES (Or.) Oct. 28.—The outlook for the Hawaiian sugar crop of 1895 is very flattering. For years this industry has been in a depressed condition. This has been due in part to successive seasons of drought. The dry seasons have taught the sugar-growers a lesson.

Most of the planters no longer depend on the element alone for water. Irrigation works for the storage of water have been built in the mountains, where the rainfall is always very heavy. From these reservoirs the water is conducted to the plantations across hills and sandy plains by means of wooden or iron aqueducts, in some cases as far as forty miles. For the Hawaiian Commercial Sugar Company, it is estimated nearly 150,000 in the developments of its water supply this year and now has over seventy miles of ditches.

The sugar crop of 1895, which will begin to come into market very soon, is estimated at 150,000 tons.

FIRE AT PORTLAND.

Seller & Co.'s Two-story Brick Warehouse Burned.

Associated Press Leased-wire Service.

PORTLAND, Oct. 29.—The warehouse of M. Seller & Co., dealers in queensware, at the corner of Thirteenth and Kearney streets, burned shortly after midnight. The fire was burning some time before the alarm was turned in, and when the department arrived the whole interior was a mass of flames.

The building, which is a two-story substantial brick, was entirely gutted. It is not known whether it was set on fire or supposed to be of incendiary origin. The loss is about $65,000. The building and contents are fully insured.

TOO MUCH FIREWATER.

Coyote and Sulphur Bank Indians Engage in a Fight.

Associated Press Leased-wire Service.

MIDDLETOWN, Oct. 28.—As a result of supplying intoxicants to the Indians of the Coyote and Sulphur Bank tribes, one buck is dead, another dying and six others seriously hurt.

The Sulphur Bank Indians were visiting the Coyote tribe, and during the festivities both parties imbibed too freely, and the meeting broke up in a stabbing affray. The tribes when sober are industrious and peaceful and the supplying of liquor to them is severely condemned.

DIED IN A VAT.

SAN JOAQUIN, Oct. 28.—Michael Devlin, employed at the Burgundy Vineyard, about six miles from town, died last night, this afternoon and died almost instantly from asphyxiation. No one saw the accident, but the cause of death was plainly evidenced by experiments made for gas.

Devlin was a native of Massachusetts, aged about 35. Nothing is known of his relatives, better than anything else on earth.

FIGHTING FLAMES.

Forest Fires Spreading Ruin in Mississippi and Tennessee.

Associated Press Leased-wire Service.

CORINTH (Miss.), Oct. 28.—Forest fires are raging in the vicinity of Corinth, and a dense smoke overhangs the town. Several cattlesheds have been destroyed in the outlying districts, valuable timber ruined and the country laid waste. Hundreds of farmers are fighting the flames.

SPREADING LIKE LIGHTNING.

TRIMBLE (Tenn.), Oct. 28.—Forest fires are spreading ruin in this section. The flames have made timber and grass as dry as tinder, and the flames spread with lightning-like rapidity. The valuable range of Obion river bottoms has been swept bare, causing a loss of thousands of dollars.

FLASHES FROM THE WIRES.

A fire in a stable in East Eighty-fifth street, New York, yesterday destroyed the building and burned one man, John Kelly, to death.

The London Daily News says that Lord Derby, the French was the first ever delivered, and that it has made his future as a Liberal leader.

Another well-developed case of smallpox has developed at Fort Washington, the victim being Charles E. Williams, a colored messenger in the Interior Department.

The Chilean Minister at Washington, Don Domingo Gana, has received the congratulations of the opening, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, of the Milling and Metallurgical Exposition at Santiago, Chile.

At Boston, T. D. Sullivan, M. F. ex-Lord Mayor of Liverpool, attended a dinner at the Savoy, London, last evening, to deliver it. He ridiculed the House of Lords and predicted that its end was near.

On Oct. 27, the Rio Grande "Western" was caught between freight cars while coupling, at Soldiers' Camp, Utah, yesterday afternoon, and was crushed to death. Both were instantaneously killed.

A dispatch to the London Daily News from Berlin says that a ministerial council to discuss the formation of a new cabinet will be held on March 12, so that the meeting will result in a cabinet crisis.

The Chilean Minister at Washington, Don Domingo Gana, has received the congratulations of the opening, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, of the Milling and Metallurgical Exposition at Santiago, Chile.

Two hundred carloads of twelve twine each in roots have been ordered from the mountains of New Mexico, where it abounds in its habitat. It produces fifteen tons of roots to the acres, and grows in January, so that the crop will be ready to secure a return at once.

The producers expect to get about 500 carloads of the concentrated canaglia acid a year, amounting to something like 6000 tons. This product will be shipped to Chicago for the tannery near the stock yards. In addition to growing the roots there will be extensive works for reducing the roots into pulp, composed mostly of tannic acid. The factory and other buildings, dwellings, etc., will cost about $200,000. If the enterprise proves successful it is believed the experiment will be followed by many ranches and then a new industry of considerable importance will be established in California.

NEARLY GOT AWAY.

One of the Maricopa Train-robbers Attempts to Break Jail.

Associated Press Leased-wire Service.

TOCSON (Ariz.), Oct. 28.—Oscar Rogers, one of the men charged with holding up the Southern Pacific east-bound overland, some weeks ago near Maricopa station, and now confined in jail here pending a hearing on indictments found by the grand jury of Pinal county, made a daring and almost successful attempt to escape today. He has been allowed the freedom of the main corridor in the lower floor of the building during the day time.

This afternoon the jailor noticed that Rogers had apparently been asleep, and his ammonia, becoming aware he made an investigation. Finding that Rogers had removed all but one layer of brick from the wall, the hole he was making would have been about large for him to have escaped through. A line of stones was

THEIR "DUTCH" UP.

How Caprivi Lost His Tentative Grip.

He Refused to Disavow an Article Which He Had Not Inspired.

The New Chancellor Will Carry Out the Same Policy as the ex-Premier—The Emperor's Personal Influence.

Associated Press Leased-wire Service.

BERLIN, Oct. 28.—(By Atlantic Cable.) As the political position clarifies, the retirement of Count von Caprivi from the Chancellery assumes still further the character of an actual dismissal. The Emperor appears to have originated in the Emperor's reception recently of a delegation of East Prussian agrarians, headed by Count Zu Eulenberg. The delegation was submissive, but the agrarian organ used the reception as a proof that the Emperor was favorable to Eulenberg. The latter appeared to be determined to remain in office, Von Caprivi submitted a memorandum on Tuesday, offering to resign if Count Eulenberg remained in office. Being forced to choose between the two, the Emperor, as is known, gave his unqualified approval to Count von Caprivi's policy. Thereupon, as a set-off to the Emperor's reception, the article in the Cologne Gazette attacking Eulenberg appeared. Eulenberg resigned on Friday morning.

The Emperor sent Herr von Lucasius, chief of the Civil Cabinet, to ask Von Caprivi whether he had inspired the article in the Gazette. Von Caprivi replied in the affirmative, expressing his sympathy with that paper's views. The Emperor then summoned Count von Caprivi and demanded a public disavowal of the article. Caprivi repeated that he had not inspired the article, and would not publish a disclaimer, because he agreed with the author. He now had no alternative but to resign, which he did. It is now known as a fact that the Emperor tried to reconcile the personal differences between the two men, but failed.

Comments are made on the curious eruption of the imperial personal idiosyncrasies into the domain of government. Had Caprivi been dismissed for the sake of his personal popularity? Or was it that the Emperor could readily understand the change, but that a new Chancellor should be appointed to execute exactly the same policy his predecessor advocated? Is it that the new development of political ideas will be invited to act as arbitrator?

Prince von Hohenlohe visited Count von Caprivi today. The latter will enjoy a position as ex-Chancellor, but his army service will be canceled. After a visit to Geneva he intends to take up his permanent residence with his niece, on their estate in Betzenburg.

Prince von Hohenlohe's age (he is now 75 years old) is regarded as including him in the category of semi-retired.

The chief interest of the present week among Republicans centers in the appearance of Senator Arrigoni at the West End evening next at Carnegie Hall.

In Democratic circles the stirring tomorrow of Gov. Flower on a tour through the State in the interest of the Democratic ticket is raising much interest because of the master stroke the Democrat claims.

The chief of Prince von Hohenlohe's staff is now become known that Count Zu Eulenberg introduced the East Prussian agrarian delegation to the Emperor without notifying or consulting Count von Caprivi. The latter's resentment is, therefore, aimed at the master of the foreign policy, as heretofore.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Prince von Hohenlohe visited Count von Caprivi today. The latter will enjoy a position as ex-Chancellor, but his army service will be canceled. After a visit to Geneva he intends to take up his permanent residence with his niece, on their estate in Betzenburg.

Comments are made on the curious eruption of the imperial personal idiosyncrasies into the domain of government. Had Caprivi been dismissed for the sake of his personal popularity? Or was it that the Emperor could readily understand the change, but that a new Chancellor should be appointed to execute exactly the same policy his predecessor advocated? Is it that the new development of political ideas will be invited to act as arbitrator?

Comments are made on the curious eruption of the imperial personal idiosyncrasies into the domain of government. Had Caprivi been dismissed for the sake of his personal popularity? Or was it that the Emperor could readily understand the change, but that a new Chancellor should be appointed to execute exactly the same policy his predecessor advocated? Is it that the new development of political ideas will be invited to act as arbitrator?

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

Comments are made on the seeming imitation of the old Emperor William.

The Times-Mirror Company,

PUBLISHERS OF

The Los Angeles Times, Daily, Sunday and Weekly.

H. G. OTIS.....President and General Manager.
L. E. MOSHER.....Vice-President
MARIAN OTIS-CHANDLER.....Secretary.

ALBERT McFARLAND.....Treasurer.

Office: Times Building.
N. E. corner of First and Broadway. Telephone numbers: Editorial 574; Business office 29.
EASTERN REPRESENTATIVE: E. KATE, 157 WORLD BUILDING, NEW YORK.

Founded December 4, 1851.

The Los Angeles Times

VOLUME XXVI.

THIRTEENTH YEAR.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, receiving every night in the year from 14,000 to 15,000 words of FRESH TELEGRAPHIC NEWS over 15,000 miles of leased wires.

TERMS: By Mail, $9 a year; by carrier, 85 cents a month, or 10 cents a week. SUNDAY TIMES
$8 a year. WEEKLY, $1.50 six months, 75 cents.

Sworn Net Average Circulation for Past Year, Over 13,000 Daily

Exceeding the net circulation of any other two Los Angeles daily papers.

Entered at the Los Angeles Postoffice for transmission as second-class mail matter

AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT.

GRAND—The Bridal Trap.

IMPERIAL—Vauville.

SUBBANK—The Mariner's Compass.

The Times may be purchased in San Francisco at the Baldwin and Occidental Hotel news stands. Price 5 cents only.

THE MAYORALTY CONTEST.

The situation as regards the Mayoralty, which is much mixed at present, will soon crystallize. The candidates are: Rader, Republican; Ryan, Democratic; Schnabel, Populist; Workman, Independent, and Cross, also Independent.

It is now known that Henry T. Hazard will enter the race as an independent. Capt. Cross will probably withdraw. What ex-Mayor Workman's course will be, in view of the entrance of Mr. Hazard into the contest on somewhat the same lines of public policy, we are not advised.

Many Democrats are dissatisfied with the selection of Ryan; many Republicans will not vote for Rader; some Populists are "roaring" at the choice of Schnabel.

In this state of the case, an independent nominee, who is at the same time a fit man for the office, will have positive strength.

Of the independent candidates, Hazard will poll much the heaviest vote, and is the most available candidate.

The Times, not being able to induce the regular Republican nominees, supports the revolt against him and declares for Hazard as an independent Republican candidate, to be brought before the people by petition, in accordance with the law in such cases made and provided. Ample reasons exist for pursuing this course, and will be given in detail hereafter from time to time during the municipal canvass.

Now let us all go in and have a beautiful fight!

HOW IT WORKS.

When the free traders take of duties that protect the American producers they offer, as an excuse, that they do so to make the article cheaper to the American consumer. The fallacy of this argument is being constantly exposed. European producers are not fools. They are not in business for their health. A reduction or abolition of duties in the United States means to them a chance to get better prices for the products which they sell us. The reduced tariff goes into their pockets, not into those of the American consumer.

A Chicago importing firm which makes a specialty of goods used by confectioners and bakers has issued a circular, which, after referring to the condition of trade, says: "We recommend our friends to supply themselves early this year, as the European market has advanced materially already." The advance noted is in almonds and walnuts, for which shippers ask 30 or 40 per cent. more than last year. "This," the circular adds, "more than offsets the lower duty." The duty on almonds was reduced 33 per cent., and on walnuts nearly the same amount. The result is that the exporter on the other side adds the reduction in duty to the price, pockets the difference, and charges the consumer as much as he did before. Uncle Sam loses the revenue and the consumer gets no benefit. This is simply one of the attractive features of the new tariff, and shows how it works!

The irrepressible "woman question" has been broken out in The Times with great violence, the particular cause of it being Kate Tupper Gaipin, the Democratic tenderfoot candidate for Superintendent of Schools. It promises to develop into a conflict of great and gory moment. Fair "Sisters," turn loose the batteries, and may the best girl win!

A bug has made its appearance in the fields and orchards of Hawaii which devours green things as the free-trade bug chews up American commerce; with this difference, that the Hawaiian bug disappears in the daytime and works only at night, while the free-trade bug works every blessed minute—and Grover is its stuffed prophet.

Henry Watterson says he knows three men who are permanently out of politics—Grover Cleveland, Mr. Col. Willie Madeline Breckinridge and himself. Will not the guardian of the Star-eyed Goddess kindly make it four-handed, and take in our Nancy-neffed Budd?

The anti-Estee Sacramento Bee says: "Democratic organs appear to be angry because voters are going to Estee in blocks instead of in Indian file. The fact makes them howl, not the mere method of its statement." The thing does appear to take on that complexion.

Ziegler, the San Jose demon of the flying wheel, has had his record of 1:50 flat knocked galley west and crooked by Tyler at Waltham, Mass., the latter's time being 1:45.3. The world now awaits the minute-and-a-half treadle walker, as it so long has waited for the two-minute equine.

Ex-Gov. N. O. Murphy, the Republican candidate for Congress from our sister State-in-arms across the Colorado River, is making a vigorous canvass of the Territory, and meeting with a great reception from the people. If one may judge of things at long range his election is assured.

The great Empire State is in the midst of one of the most exciting campaigns in the history of politics in that State. Senator Hill is making a life and death struggle for his election as Governor in the face of fearful odds, and just now the State has been invaded by "Billy" McKinley, who is setting the country ablaze with enthusiasm. Everything points to the triumphant election of Morton and the ignominious defeat of Tammany Hall, a consummation devoutly to be wished.

Just think of a jury having to sit cooped up in the box and listen to Harriet Monroe recite her Columbian ode, which so devastated the country last year. But that is what happened in New York the other day, and only think of it further—the jury still lives!

The ordinarily level-headed Stockton Mail is becoming rattled, loosed and all broke up generally in its wild-eyed and hysterical defense of J. Budd; but, thank goodness! the agony will be over next week.

Chancellor Caprivi is now a private citizen, and probably sleeps o' nights. Uneasy lies the head that does business at the elbow of the crown-wearer, as well as the man who wears it.

The San Francisco Chronicle pictures J. Budd as wearing an Oregon boot, and the beauty of it all is that it fits him like a circus poster on a high board fence.

The whisky trust has changed its name to "the Great White Spirit Company," but its method of making drunk come has not been altered a little bit.

Carl Browne has been "took in" for parading in Gotham. If the authorities can only keep him "took" the Lord be praised.

Not a Democratic paper in the State has attempted to explain Budd's idiotic letters to Nancy Neff's folks—neither has Jimmy.

George Gould has just paid out $200 for a pair of prize pups. What a regular sport George is getting to be!

If the people who are disgusted with Democratic hard times will but vote the Republican ticket, all will be well.

The empty dinner pail is the most effective orator of this campaign, and it isn't missing a note these days.

Grover cannot vote in New York, and is industriously laboring to find out where he is at anyway.

The November landslide is but eight days off, and it promises to be a corker.

As Grover once had his Marie Halpin, J. Budd had his Nancy Neff.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES.

ATTRACtIONS TONIGHT.—The bill at the Grand Opera house this week is Edward Adrain's bright and merry comic opera, "The Bridal Trap," the book being Anglified by that clever dramatist, Sidney Rosenthal. This composer's work is familiar to play-goers, the world over, and the pieces underscored for tonight is pronounced quite as tuneful and catchy as any one of his very familiar creations. Nature repudiates a divided heart. Holman was like a bird singing its sweet song in the branches of a tree, while Longfellow, Bryant, Whittier and Lowell resembled the bark, which rises as sings, to the gates of heaven. In spite of his forced compositions and amateurish writing, his poems are sweet, witty, tender, wholesome and clean. He touches our hearts more than any of the great poets of his time, if we may except Whittier. We love him best. Perhaps, no great man of our age has had a finer temper, and no man has ever been more popular than he. His best grace of our civilization met in his heart with harmony and glorified his old age. He was both a scientist and a poet, and yet he was a man of deep and strong faith, an earnest follower of Christ, and a regular attendant at the Unitarian service in King's Chapel, Boston. Science did not stand him in with dismal doubts. He regarded creeds and religious hindrances to the advancement of Christianity, as evasions of the souls of men, and as an insult to the free spirit of God. His noble character, which the whole English-speaking world is now learning, has been formed without the aid of creeds. His soul was larger than any denomination, and he transcended the race. He did not look upon the world through a narrow, stained window in his church, but he surveyed the heavens and the earth from the top of the church-steeple.

The great poets of America were Unitarian Christians. Whittier sang the larger Christian hope. No great poet will ever be born that will sing the praises of a devil-god or eternal damnation. Christ, "the hope of glory," will inspire the poets of the twentieth century.

Mr. Browne has been visiting the colleagues about Los Angeles, and today goes to Claremont.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES.

ATTTRACTIONS TONIGHT.—The bill at the Grand Opera house this week is Edward Adrain's bright and merry comic opera, "The Bridal Trap," the book being Anglified by that clever dramatist, Sidney Rosenthal. This composer's work is familiar to play-goers, the world over, and the pieces underscored for tonight is pronounced quite as tuneful and catchy as any one of his very familiar creations. Nature repudiates a divided heart. Holman was like a bird singing its sweet song in the branches of a tree, while Longfellow, Bryant, Whittier and Lowell resembled the bark, which rises as sings, to the gates of heaven. In spite of his forced compositions and amateurish writing, his poems are sweet, witty, tender, wholesome and clean. He touches our hearts more than any of the great poets of his time, if we may except Whittier. We love him best. Perhaps, no great man of our age has had a finer temper, and no man has ever been more popular than he. His best grace of our civilization met in his heart with harmony and glorified his old age. He was both a scientist and a poet, and yet he was a man of deep and strong faith, an earnest follower of Christ, and a regular attendant at the Unitarian service in King's Chapel, Boston. Science did not stand him in with dismal doubts. He regarded creeds and religious hindrances to the advancement of Christianity, as evasions of the souls of men, and as an insult to the free spirit of God. His noble character, which the whole English-speaking world is now learning, has been formed without the aid of creeds. His soul was larger than any denomination, and he transcended the race. He did not look upon the world through a narrow, stained window in his church, but he surveyed the heavens and the earth from the top of the church-steeple.

The great poets of America were Unitarian Christians. Whittier sang the larger Christian hope. No great poet will ever be born that will sing the praises of a devil-god or eternal damnation. Christ, "the hope of glory," will inspire the poets of the twentieth century.

Mr. Browne has been visiting the colleagues about Los Angeles, and today goes to Claremont.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES.

ATTTRACTIONS TONIGHT.—The bill at the Grand Opera house this week is Edward Adrain's bright and merry comic opera,

"The Bridal Trap," the book being Anglified by that clever dramatist, Sidney Rosenthal. This composer's work is familiar to play-goers, the world over, and the pieces underscored for tonight is pronounced quite as tuneful and catchy as any one of his very familiar creations. Nature repudiates a divided heart. Holman was like a bird singing its sweet song in the branches of a tree, while Longfellow, Bryant, Whittier and Lowell resembled the bark, which rises as sings, to the gates of heaven. In spite of his forced compositions and amateurish writing, his poems are sweet, witty, tender, wholesome and clean. He touches our hearts more than any of the great poets of his time, if we may except Whittier. We love him best. Perhaps, no great man of our age has had a finer temper, and no man has ever been more popular than he. His best grace of our civilization met in his heart with harmony and glorified his old age. He was both a scientist and a poet, and yet he was a man of deep and strong faith, an earnest follower of Christ, and a regular attendant at the Unitarian service in King's Chapel, Boston. Science did not stand him in with dismal doubts. He regarded creeds and religious hindrances to the advancement of Christianity, as evasions of the souls of men, and as an insult to the free spirit of God. His noble character, which the whole English-speaking world is now learning, has been formed without the aid of creeds. His soul was larger than any denomination, and he transcended the race. He did not look upon the world through a narrow, stained window in his church, but he surveyed the heavens and the earth from the top of the church-steeple.

The great poets of America were Unitarian Christians. Whittier sang the larger Christian hope. No great poet will ever be born that will sing the praises of a devil-god or eternal damnation. Christ, "the hope of glory," will inspire the poets of the twentieth century.

Mr. Browne has been visiting the colleagues about Los Angeles, and today goes to Claremont.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES.

ATTTRACTIONS TONIGHT.—The bill at the Grand Opera house this week is Edward Adrain's bright and merry comic opera,

"The Bridal Trap," the book being Anglified by that clever dramatist, Sidney Rosenthal. This composer's work is familiar to play-goers, the world over, and the pieces underscored for tonight is pronounced quite as tuneful and catchy as any one of his very familiar creations. Nature repudiates a divided heart. Holman was like a bird singing its sweet song in the branches of a tree, while Longfellow, Bryant, Whittier and Lowell resembled the bark, which rises as sings, to the gates of heaven. In spite of his forced compositions and amateurish writing, his poems are sweet, witty, tender, wholesome and clean. He touches our hearts more than any of the great poets of his time, if we may except Whittier. We love him best. Perhaps, no great man of our age has had a finer temper, and no man has ever been more popular than he. His best grace of our civilization met in his heart with harmony and glorified his old age. He was both a scientist and a poet, and yet he was a man of deep and strong faith, an earnest follower of Christ, and a regular attendant at the Unitarian service in King's Chapel, Boston. Science did not stand him in with dismal doubts. He regarded creeds and religious hindrances to the advancement of Christianity, as evasions of the souls of men, and as an insult to the free spirit of God. His noble character, which the whole English-speaking world is now learning, has been formed without the aid of creeds. His soul was larger than any denomination, and he transcended the race. He did not look upon the world through a narrow, stained window in his church, but he surveyed the heavens and the earth from the top of the church-steeple.

The great poets of America were Unitarian Christians. Whittier sang the larger Christian hope. No great poet will ever be born that will sing the praises of a devil-god or eternal damnation. Christ, "the hope of glory," will inspire the poets of the twentieth century.

Mr. Browne has been visiting the colleagues about Los Angeles, and today goes to Claremont.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES.

ATTTRACTIONS TONIGHT.—The bill at the Grand Opera house this week is Edward Adrain's bright and merry comic opera,

"The Bridal Trap," the book being Anglified by that clever dramatist, Sidney Rosenthal. This composer's work is familiar to play-goers, the world over, and the pieces underscored for tonight is pronounced quite as tuneful and catchy as any one of his very familiar creations. Nature repudiates a divided heart. Holman was like a bird singing its sweet song in the branches of a tree, while Longfellow, Bryant, Whittier and Lowell resembled the bark, which rises as sings, to the gates of heaven. In spite of his forced compositions and amateurish writing, his poems are sweet, witty, tender, wholesome and clean. He touches our hearts more than any of the great poets of his time, if we may except Whittier. We love him best. Perhaps, no great man of our age has had a finer temper, and no man has ever been more popular than he. His best grace of our civilization met in his heart with harmony and glorified his old age. He was both a scientist and a poet, and yet he was a man of deep and strong faith, an earnest follower of Christ, and a regular attendant at the Unitarian service in King's Chapel, Boston. Science did not stand him in with dismal doubts. He regarded creeds and religious hindrances to the advancement of Christianity, as evasions of the souls of men, and as an insult to the free spirit of God. His noble character, which the whole English-speaking world is now learning, has been formed without the aid of creeds. His soul was larger than any denomination, and he transcended the race. He did not look upon the world through a narrow, stained window in his church, but he surveyed the heavens and the earth from the top of the church-steeple.

The great poets of America were Unitarian Christians. Whittier sang the larger Christian hope. No great poet will ever be born that will sing the praises of a devil-god or eternal damnation. Christ, "the hope of glory," will inspire the poets of the twentieth century.

Mr. Browne has been visiting the colleagues about Los Angeles, and today goes to Claremont.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES.

ATTTRACTIONS TONIGHT.—The bill at the Grand Opera house this week is Edward Adrain's bright and merry comic opera,

"The Bridal Trap," the book being Anglified by that clever dramatist, Sidney Rosenthal. This composer's work is familiar to play-goers, the world over, and the pieces underscored for tonight is pronounced quite as tuneful and catchy as any one of his very familiar creations. Nature repudiates a divided heart. Holman was like a bird singing its sweet song in the branches of a tree, while Longfellow, Bryant, Whittier and Lowell resembled the bark, which rises as sings, to the gates of heaven. In spite of his forced compositions and amateurish writing, his poems are sweet, witty, tender, wholesome and clean. He touches our hearts more than any of the great poets of his time, if we may except Whittier. We love him best. Perhaps, no great man of our age has had a finer temper, and no man has ever been more popular than he. His best grace of our civilization met in his heart with harmony and glorified his old age. He was both a scientist and a poet, and yet he was a man of deep and strong faith, an earnest follower of Christ, and a regular attendant at the Unitarian service in King's Chapel, Boston. Science did not stand him in with dismal doubts. He regarded creeds and religious hindrances to the advancement of Christianity, as evasions of the souls of men, and as an insult to the free spirit of God. His noble character, which the whole English-speaking world is now learning, has been formed without the aid of creeds. His soul was larger than any denomination, and he transcended the race. He did not look upon the world through a narrow, stained window in his church, but he surveyed the heavens and the earth from the top of the church-steeple.

The great poets of America were Unitarian Christians. Whittier sang the larger Christian hope. No great poet will ever be born that will sing the praises of a devil-god or eternal damnation. Christ, "the hope of glory," will inspire the poets of the twentieth century.

Mr. Browne has been visiting the colleagues about Los Angeles, and today goes to Claremont.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES.

ATTTRACTIONS TONIGHT.—The bill at the Grand Opera house this week is Edward Adrain's bright and merry comic opera,

"The Bridal Trap," the book being Anglified by that clever dramatist, Sidney Rosenthal. This composer's work is familiar to play-goers, the world over, and the pieces underscored for tonight is pronounced quite as tuneful and catchy as any one of his very familiar creations. Nature repudiates a divided heart. Holman was like a bird singing its sweet song in the branches of a tree, while Longfellow, Bryant, Whittier and Lowell resembled the bark, which rises as sings, to the gates of heaven. In spite of his forced compositions and amateurish writing, his poems are sweet, witty, tender, wholesome and clean. He touches our hearts more than any of the great poets of his time, if we may except Whittier. We love him best. Perhaps, no great man of our age has had a finer temper, and no man has ever been more popular than he. His best grace of our civilization met in his heart with harmony and glorified his old age. He was both a scientist and a poet, and yet he was a man of deep and strong faith, an earnest follower of Christ, and a regular attendant at the Unitarian service in King's Chapel, Boston. Science did not stand him in with dismal doubts. He regarded creeds and religious hindrances to the advancement of Christianity, as evasions of the souls of men, and as an insult to the free spirit of God. His noble character, which the whole English-speaking world is now learning, has been formed without the aid of creeds. His soul was larger than any denomination, and he transcended the race. He did not look upon the world through a narrow, stained window in his church, but he surveyed the heavens and the earth from the top of the church-steeple.

The great poets of

FIELD OF POLITICS.

Republican Prospects Were Never Brighter.

The County Candidates Have Covered the Ground Very Effectively.

Confident of Success in the Approaching Fight—Mr. McLachlan's Citizenship—A Silly Charge Disproved.

Matters political will be extremely lively in the city, as well as throughout the county and State during the coming week, which is the last of the campaign. The Republicans have canvassed the county thoroughly, and the enthusiasm they have awakened is of a marked and lasting sort, such as has not been manifested for years. Reports received at the County Central Committee-rooms tell of the prevalence of Republican spirit everywhere and preface the victory, which it is confidently expected will be won next week when the voters deposit their ballots.

The condition of affairs in the county is of a particularly encouraging nature. Wherever the Republican candidate have gone they have been heartily received and the meetings at which they have spoken have always been well attended. The county candidates were divided into two divisions, Maj. Donald heading one division and John Burr the other.

Maj. Donald, nominee for District Attorney, has had the opportunity of showing his worthiness to the people here, and stands above Bower, his Populist opponent, and the voters will be able to cast their ballots on November 6 with the feeling that in the Republican candidate they will have a man who can fittingly discharge the duties of the office of the public prosecutor. He has been a member of the Populist District Attorney for two years, the very decided opinion is that there should be a change, and the Republicans declare that they will give the people a new regime.

John Burr has been making the rounds in his quiet thorough campaign as nominee for Sheriff, and the other candidates have not fallen behind in the race.

The success of Mr. McLachlan's canvass has been also marked, the large crowds that greeted the Congressional candidate and all the others of the district being a strong vote of confidence.

It is stated as a positive fact that nearly 75 per cent. of the voters who registered in the county this year are Republicans. Two years ago the Democrats and Populists cast a combined total of 11,240 against Mr. Bowers, 10,220, while the total county vote 22,518, which was about six thousand less than the names shown by the Great Register of those entitled to vote, while it is believed that at the last election a large percentage of those who stayed away from the polls were Republicans. This gives the Populists the opportunity to cast a ballot so by the time of the calculation entirely, the figures point to a big Republican majority. "Allowing 75 per cent. of the increased vote to the Republicans, who would give a majority of 3,500, numbers which might be deducted a round lot of votes to secure any possible gain made by the Populists or Democrats and still leave a good winning margin."

It is scarcely any wonder that the Republican candidates are confident that they will "win the race in style."

The last big Republican rally of the campaign will be held next Saturday evening, when the San Francisco orator, George E. Knight, will come down with Spencer G. Millard to deliver a final address. Mr. Miller has been traveling with Mr. Knight in the northern part of the State for several weeks, and his concluding campaign work will be among his fellow-citizens of Los Angeles.

McLachlan's Citizenship.

A DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN LINE PROMPTLY NAILED.

The Democratic organ of this city, being hard pressed for campaign ammunition to use against the Republican candidate for Congress, in its Sunday issue editorially attacked his citizenship, arguing, in effect, that because the evidence of the naturalization of Mr. McLachlan's father does not appear in the record of his own registration in Los Angeles county it must be that he is not a citizen.

But Mr. McLachlan has not left himself open to successful attack at this important point. Four years ago, when he was a candidate for District Attorney of Los Angeles county, it appeared that an attempt would probably be made to discredit his citizenship and he therefore wrote to the proper officer in the State of New York for a transcript of the official record of the proceedings of the court in which his father was naturalized. Following is a copy of the document. It will be seen from a reading of it that Mr. McLachlan's father was naturalized in October, 1860. The son was at that time about 8 years old. The publication of this copy of the record will probably convince the Democratic organ of the citizenship of the Republican candidate for Congress. If it has any doubt about his Americanism, it is referred to his speech published in yesterday's Times:

STATE OF NEW YORK, TOMPKINS COUNTY—SS.
Westel Willoughby and Archibald McElday of the town of Grotto, in the county of Tompkins, and the State of New York, do hereby certify that we have sworn, and do say, each for ourselves, that they are citizens of the United States; that they are well acquainted with James McLachlan; that he has resided in the United States for five years past, and not elsewhere, and for the last year in the State of New York, and during all that time has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same.

W. WILLOUGHBY,
ARCH'D M'KELLAY,
Sworn to in open court this 15th day of October, 1860, before me,
S. H. LAMPORT, Clerk.

J. James McLachlan, do solemnly swear that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and that I hereby entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign prince, potentate, state or government, however, and particularly to the Queen of Great Britain, of whom I am a subject. So help me God.

JAMES M'LACHLAN,
Sworn to in open court, this 15th day of October, 1860, before me,
S. H. LAMPORT, Clerk.

STATE OF NEW YORK, TOMPKINS COUNTY—SS.
The master of the application of James McLachlan to become a citizen of the United States.

The said applicant having made application to this court to become a citizen of the United States, and it appearing that said applicant two years since made the declaration required by law and it appearing to the full satisfaction of the court that he has complied in all respects with the laws of the United States relating to naturalization, and the court having agreed with the attorney who has represented the United States for a number of years immediately preceding this application, and that, during all that time he behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and was used in the good order and happiness of the same; and the said applicant

BURNS, FOR MAN, BRUISES MUSTANG LINIMENT Rheumatism, AND BEAST. Stiff Joints

BANKS
BANKERS AND MERCHANTS' BANK OF LOS ANGELES
Oldest and largest bank in Southern California—Corner Main and Commercial Streets
Capital paid up, $500,000
Surplus and profits, $20,000

TOTAL, $1,220,000
Lankershim, C. E. Thom, C. Ducommun, H. W. Hellman, Andrew Glassel, T. L. Dugay, and W. H. Hellman, Special collection department Correspondence invited.

L. H. VANKIRK, Clerk.

The Democratic organ is further informed that Mr. McLachlan has never resided in Canada. He was 3 years old when he arrived at New York, and resided there continuously until he came to California.

POLITICS AT SANTA MONICA.

SANTA MONICA, Oct. 23.—(Special Correspondence.) The committee appointed by the Republican Club has prepared a programme for Tuesday evening, using local talent only, the scheme being to make the affair one of home interest. A girls' club has been recruited by William A. Gilmore, and will have a programme place on the programme. The principal address of the evening will be by H. G. Weise, candidate for the Assembly, and among other things he will explain the purpose and bearing of the nine constitutional amendments to be voted upon next month. To this will the meeting will be thoroughly unpartisan, and everyone is invited. The meeting will be held at the club's headquarters, 222 Utah avenue.

Saturday evening's oysterhouse meeting was in its way a novelty. Mrs. Galpin was here, and spoke upon education. That political speaker is well known to the stands above Bower, his Populist opponent, and the voters will be able to cast their ballots on November 6 with the feeling that in the Republican candidate they will have a man who can fittingly discharge the duties of the office of the public prosecutor. He has been a member of the Populist District Attorney for two years, the very decided opinion is that there should be a change, and the Republicans declare that they will give the people a new regime.

John Burr has been making the rounds in his quiet thorough campaign as nominee for Sheriff, and the other candidates have not fallen behind in the race.

The success of Mr. McLachlan's canvass has been also marked, the large crowds that greeted the Congressional candidate and all the others of the district being a strong vote of confidence.

It is stated as a positive fact that nearly 75 per cent. of the voters who registered in the county this year are Republicans.

Two years ago the Democrats and Populists cast a combined total of 11,240 against Mr. Bowers, 10,220, while the total county vote 22,518, which was about six thousand less than the names shown by the Great Register of those entitled to vote, while it is believed that at the last election a large percentage of those who stayed away from the polls were Republicans. This gives the Populists the opportunity to cast a ballot so by the time of the calculation entirely, the figures point to a big Republican majority. "Allowing 75 per cent. of the increased vote to the Republicans, who would give a majority of 3,500, numbers which might be deducted a round lot of votes to secure any possible gain made by the Populists or Democrats and still leave a good winning margin."

It is scarcely any wonder that the Republican candidates are confident that they will "win the race in style."

The last big Republican rally of the campaign will be held next Saturday evening, when the San Francisco orator, George E. Knight, will come down with Spencer G. Millard to deliver a final address. Mr. Miller has been traveling with Mr. Knight in the northern part of the State for several weeks, and his concluding campaign work will be among his fellow-citizens of Los Angeles.

McLachlan's Citizenship.

A DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN LINE PROMPTLY NAILED.

The Democratic organ of this city, being hard pressed for campaign ammunition to use against the Republican candidate for Congress, in its Sunday issue editorially attacked his citizenship, arguing, in effect, that because the evidence of the naturalization of Mr. McLachlan's father does not appear in the record of his own registration in Los Angeles county it must be that he is not a citizen.

But Mr. McLachlan has not left himself open to successful attack at this important point. Four years ago, when he was a candidate for District Attorney of Los Angeles county, it appeared that an attempt would probably be made to discredit his citizenship and he therefore wrote to the proper officer in the State of New York for a transcript of the official record of the proceedings of the court in which his father was naturalized. Following is a copy of the document. It will be seen from a reading of it that Mr. McLachlan's father was naturalized in October, 1860. The son was at that time about 8 years old. The publication of this copy of the record will probably convince the Democratic organ of the citizenship of the Republican candidate for Congress. If it has any doubt about his Americanism, it is referred to his speech published in yesterday's Times:

STATE OF NEW YORK, TOMPKINS COUNTY—SS.
Westel Willoughby and Archibald McElday of the town of Grotto, in the county of Tompkins, and the State of New York, do hereby certify that we have sworn, and do say, each for ourselves, that they are citizens of the United States; that they are well acquainted with James McLachlan; that he has resided in the United States for five years past, and not elsewhere, and for the last year in the State of New York, and during all that time has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same.

W. WILLOUGHBY,
ARCH'D M'KELLAY,
Sworn to in open court, this 15th day of October, 1860, before me,
S. H. LAMPORT, Clerk.

J. James McLachlan, do solemnly swear that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and that I hereby entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign prince, potentate, state or government, however, and particularly to the Queen of Great Britain, of whom I am a subject. So help me God.

JAMES M'LACHLAN,
Sworn to in open court, this 15th day of October, 1860, before me,
S. H. LAMPORT, Clerk.

STATE OF NEW YORK, TOMPKINS COUNTY—SS.
The master of the application of James McLachlan to become a citizen of the United States.

The said applicant having made application to this court to become a citizen of the United States, and it appearing that said applicant two years since made the declaration required by law and it appearing to the full satisfaction of the court that he has complied in all respects with the laws of the United States relating to naturalization, and the court having agreed with the attorney who has represented the United States for a number of years immediately preceding this application, and that, during all that time he behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and was used in the good order and happiness of the same; and the said applicant having appeared in open court and taken and subscribed the oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and of abjuration required by law; ordered that the said James McLachlan be and he as hereby admitteth a citizen of the United States, and of any of them.

S. H. LAMPORT.
Clerk Tompkins County, N. Y.

STATE OF NEW YORK, TOMPKINS COUNTY—OFFICE OF CLERK.

Loren P. Lampert, clerk of the said county, doth certify that I have compared the foregoing with the original record of proceedings in naturalization in this office, and do certify that it is a correct transcript thereof, and of the whole of said original.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed the official seal of said county, at Ithaca, this 18th day of October, 1890.

(Seal.) L. H. VANKIRK, Clerk.

The Democratic organ is further informed that Mr. McLachlan has never resided in Canada. He was 3 years old when he arrived at New York, and resided there continuously until he came to California.

POLITICS AT SANTA MONICA.

SANTA MONICA, Oct. 23.—(Special Correspondence.) The committee appointed by the Republican Club has prepared a programme for Tuesday evening, using local talent only, the scheme being to make the affair one of home interest.

A girls' club has been recruited by William A. Gilmore, and will have a programme place on the programme. The principal address of the evening will be by H. G. Weise, candidate for the Assembly, and among other things he will explain the purpose and bearing of the nine constitutional amendments to be voted upon next month.

To this will the meeting will be thoroughly unpartisan, and everyone is invited.

The meeting will be held at the club's headquarters, 222 Utah avenue.

Saturday evening's oysterhouse meeting was in its way a novelty. Mrs. Galpin was here, and spoke upon education. That political speaker is well known to the stands above Bower, his Populist opponent, and the voters will be able to cast their ballots on November 6 with the feeling that in the Republican candidate they will have a man who can fittingly discharge the duties of the office of the public prosecutor.

He has been a member of the Populist District Attorney for two years, the very decided opinion is that there should be a change, and the Republicans declare that they will give the people a new regime.

John Burr has been making the rounds in his quiet thorough campaign as nominee for Sheriff, and the other candidates have not fallen behind in the race.

The success of Mr. McLachlan's canvass has been also marked, the large crowds that greeted the Congressional candidate and all the others of the district being a strong vote of confidence.

It is stated as a positive fact that nearly 75 per cent. of the voters who registered in the county this year are Republicans.

Two years ago the Democrats and Populists cast a combined total of 11,240 against Mr. Bowers, 10,220, while the total county vote 22,518, which was about six thousand less than the names shown by the Great Register of those entitled to vote, while it is believed that at the last election a large percentage of those who stayed away from the polls were Republicans. This gives the Populists the opportunity to cast a ballot so by the time of the calculation entirely, the figures point to a big Republican majority. "Allowing 75 per cent. of the increased vote to the Republicans, who would give a majority of 3,500, numbers which might be deducted a round lot of votes to secure any possible gain made by the Populists or Democrats and still leave a good winning margin."

It is scarcely any wonder that the Republican candidates are confident that they will "win the race in style."

The last big Republican rally of the campaign will be held next Saturday evening, when the San Francisco orator, George E. Knight, will come down with Spencer G. Millard to deliver a final address. Mr. Miller has been traveling with Mr. Knight in the northern part of the State for several weeks, and his concluding campaign work will be among his fellow-citizens of Los Angeles.

McLachlan's Citizenship.

A DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN LINE PROMPTLY NAILED.

The Democratic organ of this city, being hard pressed for campaign ammunition to use against the Republican candidate for Congress, in its Sunday issue editorially attacked his citizenship, arguing, in effect, that because the evidence of the naturalization of Mr. McLachlan's father does not appear in the record of his own registration in Los Angeles county it must be that he is not a citizen.

But Mr. McLachlan has not left himself open to successful attack at this important point. Four years ago, when he was a candidate for District Attorney of Los Angeles county, it appeared that an attempt would probably be made to discredit his citizenship and he therefore wrote to the proper officer in the State of New York for a transcript of the official record of the proceedings of the court in which his father was naturalized. Following is a copy of the document. It will be seen from a reading of it that Mr. McLachlan's father was naturalized in October, 1860. The son was at that time about 8 years old. The publication of this copy of the record will probably convince the Democratic organ of the citizenship of the Republican candidate for Congress. If it has any doubt about his Americanism, it is referred to his speech published in yesterday's Times:

STATE OF NEW YORK, TOMPKINS COUNTY—SS.
Westel Willoughby and Archibald McElday of the town of Grotto, in the county of Tompkins, and the State of New York, do hereby certify that we have sworn, and do say, each for ourselves, that they are citizens of the United States; that they are well acquainted with James McLachlan; that he has resided in the United States for five years past, and not elsewhere, and for the last year in the State of New York, and during all that time has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same.

W. WILLOUGHBY,
ARCH'D M'KELLAY,
Sworn to in open court, this 15th day of October, 1860, before me,
S. H. LAMPORT, Clerk.

J. James McLachlan, do solemnly swear that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and that I hereby entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign prince, potentate, state or government, however, and particularly to the Queen of Great Britain, of whom I am a subject. So help me God.

JAMES M'LACHLAN,
Sworn to in open court, this 15th day of October, 1860, before me,
S. H. LAMPORT, Clerk.

STATE OF NEW YORK, TOMPKINS COUNTY—SS.
The master of the application of James McLachlan to become a citizen of the United States.

The said applicant having made application to this court to become a citizen of the United States, and it appearing that said applicant two years since made the declaration required by law and it appearing to the full satisfaction of the court that he has complied in all respects with the laws of the United States relating to naturalization, and the court having agreed with the attorney who has represented the United States for a number of years immediately preceding this application, and that, during all that time he behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and was used in the good order and happiness of the same; and the said applicant

having appeared in open court and taken and subscribed the oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and of abjuration required by law; ordered that the said James McLachlan be and he as hereby admitteth a citizen of the United States, and of any of them.

S. H. LAMPORT.
Clerk Tompkins County, N. Y.

STATE OF NEW YORK, TOMPK

THE SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA NEWS

PASADENA.

TO COMPETE THE PROPER NUMBERING OF HOUSES.

A Union Meeting of the Christian Endeavor Societies—Progress on the New Charter—Personals.

PASADENA, Oct. 28.—(Special Correspondence.) The fifteen freeholders who have been laboring to frame a new charter for Pasadena, say that the work is so well advanced that at their next meeting it can be approved in its entirety, and then the public will be taken into their confidence and have an opportunity to discuss, dissect and criticize as the spirit moves. On November 13, and for thirty days thereafter, the proposed charter must be published to give taxpayers a chance to study and understand it before the time for voting to accept or reject it. As some of the provisions of the new charter will effect very radical changes in present conditions, the method of electing government officials, to its acceptance it may be divided. If the electors of Pasadena approve the charter as submitted, it will then go to the Legislature, where it will be either confirmed or rejected, that body having no power to amend or change it in any way.

RALLY, REPUBLICANS.

An effort will be made to enlist a company of 500 or 600 Pasadena Republicans to go to Los Angeles next Saturday evening to participate in the last grand rally of the campaign, which will be, in many respects, a memorable occasion. It is estimated that over 10,000 Americans will vote in Pasadena at the coming election, and it is not unreasonable to expect that at least 500 of them should agree to go in a body to the rally, and show what this city can do. Such a body of men wearing conspicuous badges would make an impression even in the great crowd which will be there. Every town in the state and Pasadena as the second city will have a chance to distinguish itself by the number of good Republicans it can send to the rally.

STREET NUMBERING.

The movement looking toward the adoption of a new system of street numbering, inaugurated at the last meeting of the City Council by the motion of Judge Weed and instigated by the City Attorney to effect an ordinance providing for the desired innovation, has been commenced upon considerably during the past week. Some people contend that what is needed most is a new ordinance, but a strict enforcement of the old one now in the books, but practically a dead letter. Under the old ordinance, which is as known to everybody, it has been agreed to number up a house by a given number, the number being as it stands, each twelve and one-half feet of property frontage is entitled to a number, odd or even, depending on the side of the street where it stands. Thus, a house standing on the 120th street, which is entitled to one of ten numbers, will be entitled to the 120th number, the odd occupant may select. If the rule had specified twenty-five feet instead of twelve and one-half, and had been enforced, it would not be so bad. The trouble is, as was stated by the City Engineer, that a great many people have houses built in yards, or numbered, when the ordinance went into effect, were aware of changing them to new ones, either through motives of taste, economy or superstition, and consequently there are adjacent houses numbered by the new system, the old system not numbered at all. Trustee Cox, however, sees the wisdom of the City of Brotherly Love is in favor of adopting the Philadelphia block system, which is gaining in favor, but this is not considered practicable in Pasadena, when the length of blocks may vary from 200 feet to three-quarters of a mile. Whatever the City Council may conclude to do, adopt a motion to enforce the old or the revised on the subject may result in bringing some order out of chaos.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR UNION.

The Pasadena Union of Christian Endeavorists almost filled the large double hall of the Grand Army Saturday evening for the reception of C. C. Reynolds, the new president. After the official and fraternal handshake a pleasant musical programme was rendered. Misses Hall and Underwood gave a piano duet, Miss Van Doren a piano solo, Newton Smith and Miss Eaton a vocal duet, and Messrs. Smith and Day and Misses Jones and Eaton as a quartette rendered a song. Prof. A. L. Hamilton in a short speech introduced Mr. Reynolds as their knight to lead. He delivered a speech full of earnestness and in a manner which no doubt impressed all with a desire to aid, each in his place, the Christian work of the union.

PASADENA BREVIETES.

Unless the plans have gone awry since Saturday morning's petition from the Southern Pacific Railroad Company will be presented to the City Council at Monday's meeting, asking for a franchise to build a steam railroad on Broadway from its southern end to a point near Colorado street. The similar plan from the San Joaquin and Terminal road a few years ago refused, and the late E. F. Spence, when principal owner of the San Gabriel Valley Rapid Transit road was disengaged in an attempt to gain a similar concession. If the Southern Pacific gets what it wants it will be only after a hard fight.

The Rev. Clark Crawford presided over the meeting, and the large audience-room of the Methodist church. The taxi was taken from Joshua and treated of Gideon's victory over his enemies, with the aid of a storm of hail. The theme was that sooner or later God's judgments will find every one out and the only way to escape their effects is to "acquaint ourselves with God and be at peace."

A large audience filled the Presbyterian Church this morning to hear Rev. N. H. G. Fife. The auditorium was beautifully decorated with flowers. The sermon was from Luke 12, 30, and was a strong presentation of the power of the gospel to save the world. Miss McPherson sang with much power and sweetness.

A memorial service will be held at the Baptist Church Wednesday evening, in memory of the former pastor, the late Rev. C. E. Harris. The funeral of the deceased will be held until some time in November, when a brother will arrive from the East.

The Aeolian Club, which meets every Friday at the home of Mrs. W. B. Clapp, No. 205 South Fair Oaks avenue, is preparing to give another concert, encouraged by the success of the initial one, which was recently given in the Hotel Green Music Hall.

The Aeolian Club, which meets every Friday at the home of Mrs. W. B. Clapp, No. 205 South Fair Oaks avenue, is preparing to give another concert, encouraged by the success of the initial one, which was recently given in the Hotel Green Music Hall.

accompanyed by other citizens, are expected to arrive here Monday to inspect the asphaltum pavements laid in Pasadena by J. A. Fairchild, with the idea of having some similar work done in their city.

Rev. Frederick Pulsar conducted communion services at the First Congregational Church today. A very large congregation was present and the services were quite impressive.

J. Craven, for a year past head waiter at the Hotel Green, has left the employ of that hotel to go to Santa Barbara, where he will find a similar position in the Arlington Hotel.

NO SMALL SUGAR FACTORY FOR ANAHEIM.

It Could not Be Run at the Prevailing Prices for Sugar—Mrs. By's Great Bereavement—General News Notes.

SANTA ANA, Oct. 28.—(Special Correspondence.) Mrs. Ottaman and son Andrew, who were burned to death in the big hotel fire at Santa Ana Friday night, are mother and brother of Mrs. Frank By, of this city.

Mrs. By and two children were on the ill-fated steamer Los Angeles that was lost off the coast from Monterey a few months ago, and barely escaped with their lives.

Mrs. By knew nothing of the horrible fate of her mother and brother until she read their names in The Times this morning, as those whose charred remains had been dug out of the great fire.

After reading of the recovery of the bodies, Mr. By telephoned to Seattle, and ascertained that the report as to death was correct; that his wife's mother and brother were among the unfortunate victims of the disaster.

NO SMALL SUGAR FACTORY FOR ANAHEIM.

The editor of the Anaheim Independent, having heard so many of the best-raised in the northern portion of the county discussing the question of building a small sugar factory in Anaheim, wrote to E. H. Dyer of Alvarado, Cal., who has been actively engaged in the beet-sugar industry for a number of years, asking his opinion of the venture. Mr. Dyer's answer, as follows, is given below, and as the gentleman is considered good authority on the subject, particularly to the manufacture of beet-sugar, the farmers of the northern portion of the county will do well to consider what he has to say. The letter is as follows:

ALVARADO, Cal., Oct. 19, 1894.
W. A. Rugg, Esq.—Dear Sir—Your favor of the 13th inst. received. In reply have to say that in my opinion it would be unwise to build a small factory, as it could not be operated profitably. A factory should have a daily capacity of from 300 to 500 tons of beets in order to work economically. A factory that could be constructed for $100,000 or even $200,000 could not be operated profitably, as the cost of sugar is $25 to $40 per ton, now derived from the estate of her late father-in-law, so long as she remains unmarried, and take instead a husband who is adjutant-general of the Maryland State Guard and a fine man, those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated. She proposes to stay there indefinitely. The Grant house in Washington is for the use of the Grant family. Mrs. Grant enjoys stopping there occasionally, and her children are pleased whenever she is there. Col. Grant's house is a good place to get the facts in this matter. The Grants have denied, or caused to be denied, the report that Mrs. Sartoris contemplated marriage so soon after the termination of her engagement with Col. Grant. Those who are in a position to know his financial attainments of outsiders to marry. Mrs. Sartoris' husband is in England, where her children are being educated

CITY BRIEFS

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

The Weather. U. S. Weather Bureau, Los Angeles, Oct. 29, 1894.—At 5 o'clock a.m. the thermometer registered 30.07; at 5 p.m., 30.04. Thermometer for corresponding hours showed 50 deg. and 68 deg. Maximum temperature, 35 deg.; minimum temperature, 47 deg. Character of weather clear. Barometer reduced to sea level.

The removal sale of the Tyler Shoe Company lasts but two days more. Ladies' $4 russels shoes, $1; children's shoes, all sizes, 25c to $1; ladies' fine misses' tennis shoes, 50c; Laird's fine shoes and slippers, 33 1/2c to $1. The Tyler Shoe Company, No. 144 North Spring street.

Art Association exhibition will be opened by Senator White, president, November 12. Private view November 12 at No. 110 West Second street. Invitation and catalogue upon application at Art School or Conservatory of Music in same building.

National fest by Stanton W.R.C., new Turners Hall, 31st Street, between Second and Third streets, Saturday evening, October 28. Tickets 31c. Dinner, 25 cents from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Fine evening programs. Dancing. Shepard's Orchestra. Admission, 25 cents.

Dr. Swift, the director of the Lowe Observatory, will lecture about Mars and other astronomical themes on Tuesday, October 30, at 8 p.m., Unity Church. Admission, 25 cents; reserved seats, 50 cents.

School of Art and Design, No. 11 West Second street, approves a complete art education under tutors of international reputation. Garden Macleod principal.

"Facts and Illustrations About Mars" is the subject of Astronomer Swift's lecture at Unity Church, Tuesday evening, October 30. Don't fail to hear it.

Ladies' seven-button black overgarters, 25 cents, at the closing-out sale of the Fairy Bee Shoe House, opposite old Court-hotel, under hotel.

Removed, Los Angeles Conservatory of Music and Art, to No. 205 South Main street. Emily J. Salterine president.

Kreigel & Bressel's funeral directors, corner Sixth and Broadway. Open day and night. Lady attendant. Tel. No. 243.

Visit the Arrowhead Hot Springs, the finest mountain resort on the Coast. See notice under hotels.

Mantles, etc., office fittings, hardware, lumber, H. Brown, No. 514 South Spring.

Antique oil lamp, new, $1. Nauert & Cass Hardware Co., 326 S. Spring.

A large, well-lighted front room on the third floor of Times Building for rent.

Dixie Healing Association, tonight, No. 380 South Main street.

We please men at No. 150 North Spring street.

Bleached celery at Althouse Bros.

Living Whist, November 1 and 2.

Lily Stahl, a nine-year-old girl, living at No. 750 Hill (formerly Rosas) street, fell while at play yesterday morning, the fall resulting in a fracture of her right thigh bone. The child was attended by Dr. Surgeon Bryant.

The sale of seats for "O'Neill of Washington, D. C." opens this morning at the Los Angeles Theater. Daniel Sullins' company will appear in this new play three nights and Saturday matinee, commencing Thursday evening, November 1.

The awning in front of the Olympic Store on East First street caught fire in some manner during the afternoon and created a good deal of excitement for a few minutes. The blaze was extinguished without summoning aid from the fire department.

The funeral of the late M. S. Baker took place from the residence, corner of Main and Broadway, yesterday afternoon and was very interesting. Mr. Baker was the pioneer founder of Los Angeles, and had many friends throughout Southern California.

At the close of a successful series of evangelistic meetings held by C. S. Morris, superintendent of the Pacific Gospel Union Mission at the Park Congregational Church, recently, were unanimously adopted by the church members present last evening strongly endorsing the evangelist and his work.

A gasoline explosion in the house occupied by Mrs. Moore on the west side of Maple avenue, between Seventh and Eighth streets, yesterday afternoon started a fire for which an alarm was turned in. Miss Moore, her daughter, was severely burned about the hands and head, but the other damages were slight.

PERSONALS.

C. W. Campbell and wife of Artesia are registered at the Hotel Ramona.

Mrs. W. Bollard and Mrs. W. B. Morris of Vallejo are at the Hotel Ramona.

J. H. Withford, of Auckland, N. Z., reported at the Westminster yesterday.

Fred W. Wadham, Deputy Collector of Customs at Tia Juana, near San Diego, is in town.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hall of San Francisco are stopping at the Westminster for a few days.

F. J. Harrigan and family and Miss Harrigan of Sacramento have just arrived at the Hotel Ramona.

L. N. Breed and wife returned from San Francisco yesterday. They have apartments at the Nadeau.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dexter of New York were among the Eastern arrivals at the Westminster yesterday.

L. G. Cannon, J. Dougherty and M. M. Dorland, a trio of New York capitalists who are making an extensive tour of the Pacific Coast, are temporarily quartered at the Westminster.

The School Board.

A meeting of the Board of Education has been called for this evening for the purpose of auditing demands and "transacting other business, as may come before the board." A strong sentiment has been expressed that upon the receipt of the recent disgraceful disclosures against the eighth Ward member, he should present his resignation. Should he fail to do so it is possible the Council will remove him, if it can legally be done.

IT'S OF GREATEST IMPORTANCE
To all housekeepers to secure a "D" Coffee Decanter. It is a saving in coffee such as never before obtained. Call at Jayne's and Palmer's & Co., No. 100 South Spring street.

IT DON'T COST ANYTHING
To investigate my Hot-air Furnace. I take pleasure in showing it, F. E. Browne, No. 100 South Spring street.

Cure Your Dandruff.
It must be a scalp remedy. Smith's Dandruff Remedy is the only guaranteed remedy. Try it at H. M. Sale & Sons, 200 Spring street.

Rain is Coming.
And you need a house. Before ordering plans speak with C. H. Brown and H. H. Fisher. No. 616 Stimson building. They can save you money. Eight-room Colonial houses, $1,000.

W. B. FULLER, WATCHMAKER, No. 200 South Spring street.

COUPON.
This will entitle you to 10% off on all orders of Jewelry, Gold, Silver, Diamonds, etc., at our office, and on payment of $100, we will give you a free watch.

TIP TIME. First and Broadway.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

MUSICAL MENTION.

The composer Emmanuel Chabrier died at Paris on September 13. His opera, "Gwendoline," was performed at the Paris Opera in December last. He was remarkable for his power in harmonizing and orchestrating his melodies and in giving interest to this means by variety and originality, and was unable to correct himself when his final scores are no mean free from grammatical inaccuracies. His life was one of disappointment. His "Gwendoline," which was produced at Brussels in 1886, at Carlsruhe in 1889, under the direction of Felix Mottl, had waited eight years before it was accepted at the Paris Opera, and his work "Le Loup" was stopped after the third performance at the Opera Comique, owing to the fire which occurred at this theater. He left unfinished an opera, "Briseis," the libretto by Catulle Mendes, at which he had been working for several or eight years, ST. BARTHOLOMEW'S ORGAN.

With the recent completion of its new organ, St. Bartholomew's Church at Madison Avenue and Forty-fourth street, New York, now takes rank in its musical equipments with the finest in the world. The great organ, which is divided into four parts, is equal in size to any similar instrument in this country, with the possible exception of that in the Auditorium in Chicago. The one in the cathedral at Garden City, L. I., was planned on a greater scale, but is not complete.

The unique feature of St. Bartholomew's organ is that it is operated throughout by electricity, which is applied to the entire key, pedal and stop action. Instead of the old-fashioned mass of levers and rods there are miles and miles of silk-wound wire crossing and recrossing within and stretching in a bewildering tangle of keys to pipes. There are several electric organs in churches in New York, in which large magnets and powerful currents are necessary, but this vast organ, with its 5550 pipes, requires only two magnets, and a current of three volts for the entire instrument.

SHARPS AND FLATS.
The character of the fete which will mark the thousandth performance at the Paris Grand Opera of Gounod's "Faust" will strike an American audience as rather curious one. "Faust" will be given in its entirety by the best artists available at the close of the spring season in place of the apocryphosis of Marguerite, which ends the opera, the will of the prison is open, and an actor will appear made up after the deceased French master, and surrounded by the Nine Muses. Other actors will indicate nine of his operas, to wit: "Faust," "Roméo et Juliette," "Norma," "Spartacus," "The Queen of Sheba," "Polyeucte," "The Tribune of Zamara," "Mirella," and "Philemon." During the apocryphosis a chorus will be sung, the words being especially written by Gounod's librettist, Barber, while the music will be by his old friend, the veteran Ambroise Thomas.

The "Mystic" of the "Mystic" II, it is said, recently created some surprise by revealing yet another accomplishment. At a concert given in the Castle Sans-Souci, Potsdam, he played several of his own compositions for the flute. The Emperor intends to continue his concerts at Sans-Souci, at one of which he will sing "Song to Aegir" with orchestral accompaniment.

The violin concerto by the late Wilhelm Taubert, conductor at the Berlin Royal Opera, in William II's reign, has recently been found among his papers by his son, Prof. Emil Taubert. Dr. Munich of the orchestra of the Royal Opera, has completed the scoring of the accompaniments, and the piece will be played this winter for the first time by Prof. Waldemar Meyer.

Juanto Manen, the ten-year-old violinist, is engaged to appear in this country in a series of concerts. At present he is a great favorite in Barcelona. Sarasate, his teacher, is especially fond of him, and pronounces him to be the coming Joachim. Johann Strauss, surnamed "The Waltz King," was the highly-honored subject of a grand jubilee reception in Vienna recently, at which he received the highest awards and the valuable gifts from all parts of the world fairly filled tables, sideboards and other pieces of furniture in his beautiful Vienna home. Congratulatory messages from all countries were read, and the occasion was one which did honor to one of the most popular and deserving of modern composers.

NEGLECTED HER BABY.
A Depraved Woman Taken in Charge by the Police.

A woman who refused to say who she is, but whose name was found to be Bernadette, was taken to the police station yesterday afternoon for an offense which it seldom devolves upon the police department to officially recognize.

The woman has been living on Upper Main street, north of Bellevue street, for some time past. In the Police Court she was charged with disorderly conduct, and was remanded to the Westminster yesterday.

Fred W. Wadham, Deputy Collector of Customs at Tia Juana, near San Diego, is in town.

F. J. Harrigan and family and Miss Harrigan of Sacramento have just arrived at the Hotel Ramona.

L. N. Breed and wife returned from San Francisco yesterday. They have apartments at the Nadeau.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dexter of New York were among the Eastern arrivals at the Westminster yesterday.

L. G. Cannon, J. Dougherty and M. M. Dorland, a trio of New York capitalists who are making an extensive tour of the Pacific Coast, are temporarily quartered at the Westminster.

The School Board.

A meeting of the Board of Education has been called for this evening for the purpose of auditing demands and "transacting other business, as may come before the board." A strong sentiment has been expressed that upon the receipt of the recent disgraceful disclosures against the eighth Ward member, he should present his resignation. Should he fail to do so it is possible the Council will remove him, if it can legally be done.

IT'S OF GREATEST IMPORTANCE
To all housekeepers to secure a "D" Coffee Decanter. It is a saving in coffee such as never before obtained. Call at Jayne's and Palmer's & Co., No. 100 South Spring street.

IT DON'T COST ANYTHING
To investigate my Hot-air Furnace. I take pleasure in showing it, F. E. Browne, No. 100 South Spring street.

CURE YOUR DANDRUFF.
It must be a scalp remedy. Smith's Dandruff Remedy is the only guaranteed remedy. Try it at H. M. Sale & Sons, 200 Spring street.

Rain is Coming.
And you need a house. Before ordering plans speak with C. H. Brown and H. H. Fisher. No. 616 Stimson building. They can save you money. Eight-room Colonial houses, $1,000.

W. B. FULLER, WATCHMAKER, No. 200 South Spring street.

COUPON.
This will entitle you to 10% off on all orders of Jewelry, Gold, Silver, Diamonds, etc., at our office, and on payment of $100, we will give you a free watch.

TIP TIME. First and Broaday.

CITY BRIEFS

COMPLEXION POWDER
An absolute necessity of refined toilet to this climate. Person's combines every element of beauty and purity.

COUPON.
This will entitle you to 10% off on all orders of Jewelry, Gold, Silver, Diamonds, etc., at our office, and on payment of $100, we will give you a free watch.

TIP TIME. First and Broaday.

CITY BRIEFS

COMPLEXION POWDER
An absolute necessity of refined toilet to this climate. Person's combines every element of beauty and purity.

COUPON.
This will entitle you to 10% off on all orders of Jewelry, Gold, Silver, Diamonds, etc., at our office, and on payment of $100, we will give you a free watch.

TIP TIME. First and Broaday.

CITY BRIEFS

COMPLEXION POWDER
An absolute necessity of refined toilet to this climate. Person's combines every element of beauty and purity.

COUPON.
This will entitle you to 10% off on all orders of Jewelry, Gold, Silver, Diamonds, etc., at our office, and on payment of $100, we will give you a free watch.

TIP TIME. First and Broaday.

CITY BRIEFS

COMPLEXION POWDER
An absolute necessity of refined toilet to this climate. Person's combines every element of beauty and purity.

COUPON.
This will entitle you to 10% off on all orders of Jewelry, Gold, Silver, Diamonds, etc., at our office, and on payment of $100, we will give you a free watch.

TIP TIME. First and Broaday.

CITY BRIEFS

COMPLEXION POWDER
An absolute necessity of refined toilet to this climate. Person's combines every element of beauty and purity.

COUPON.
This will entitle you to 10% off on all orders of Jewelry, Gold, Silver, Diamonds, etc., at our office, and on payment of $100, we will give you a free watch.

TIP TIME. First and Broaday.

CITY BRIEFS

COMPLEXION POWDER
An absolute necessity of refined toilet to this climate. Person's combines every element of beauty and purity.

COUPON.
This will entitle you to 10% off on all orders of Jewelry, Gold, Silver, Diamonds, etc., at our office, and on payment of $100, we will give you a free watch.

TIP TIME. First and Broaday.

CITY BRIEFS

COMPLEXION POWDER
An absolute necessity of refined toilet to this climate. Person's combines every element of beauty and purity.

COUPON.
This will entitle you to 10% off on all orders of Jewelry, Gold, Silver, Diamonds, etc., at our office, and on payment of $100, we will give you a free watch.

TIP TIME. First and Broaday.

CITY BRIEFS

COMPLEXION POWDER
An absolute necessity of refined toilet to this climate. Person's combines every element of beauty and purity.

COUPON.
This will entitle you to 10% off on all orders of Jewelry, Gold, Silver, Diamonds, etc., at our office, and on payment of $100, we will give you a free watch.

TIP TIME. First and Broaday.

CITY BRIEFS

COMPLEXION POWDER
An absolute necessity of refined toilet to this climate. Person's combines every element of beauty and purity.

COUPON.
This will entitle you to 10% off on all orders of Jewelry, Gold, Silver, Diamonds, etc., at our office, and on payment of $100, we will give you a free watch.

TIP TIME.</